Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off

By popular demand the Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off is here! The Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off will be held outside of Prather Coliseum between 8:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. during the folk festival. Professional and novice chefs are invited to participate in any of our three categories: Pork Sausage, Other Protein Sausage, and Meat Alternative Sausage. Participants may enter any or all of the three categories of the competition.

Red beans and rice must be cooked on-site, although beans may be pre-soaked. Only meat may be prepared in advance. Entries must be cooked using propane gas or open cookfire outside of Prather Coliseum. Running water and assigned cooking spaces will be available for each participant.

Each Head Cook is responsible for preparing a minimum of 2 GALLONS of red beans to be judged in a specific category and for preparing 16 ounces for judging from that same 2 gallons. Each entry requires a separate registration form. After one p.m., red beans may be sold to festival patrons at “a buck a cup.”

Entries will be judged on:

Appearance: looks like red beans—colors of the beans and the distribution of protein is representative of good red beans & rice

Aroma: smells appetizing

Texture: has the consistency of good red beans & rice

Flavor: tastes like good red beans & rice
