Northwestern State University Psi Chi Chapter

Spring 2023

The NSULA chapter of the International Honor Society in Psychology (Psi Chi) invites eligible students to apply for membership this spring. Psi Chi was founded in 1929, with the purposes of encouraging, stimulating, and maintaining excellence in scholarship, and advancing the science of psychology. Membership is open to graduate students in clinical psychology, undergraduate students who are psychology or addiction studies majors or minors, and meet the minimum criteria. Membership is a lifetime honor and members enjoy an array of benefits. For more information about Psi Chi, please visit: www.psichi.org.

Requirements:

Undergraduate Students:

- Be enrolled as a major or minor in a psychology program or addiction studies program.
- Have completed at least 3 semesters or equivalent of the college course.
- Have completed at least 9 semester hours (or equivalent) of psychology courses.
- Have an overall GPA of at least 3.0
- Have a minimum 3.0 GPA in psychology or addiction studies courses.

Graduate Students:

- Be enrolled in a psychology graduate program.
- Have completed at least one full semester of graduate coursework.
- Have an overall GPA of at least 3.0.

Applications: Please complete your application at <http://www.psichi.org/?page=JoinToday> by March 10th. After applying online, please email your name and student ID shiversh@nsula.edu. After approval, you will receive an e-mail from Psi Chi about the online fees payment system. Fees are $55 and due March 13th.

Induction: The induction ceremony and senior recognition will be held March 21st at 6 pm in the Cane River Room of the Friedman Student Union.
